He says he shall visit the chief rail way centres in the East. He will speat in Cooper Union Hall to-night on the recent great railway strike that centre in Chicago. He says the interference of the Federal authorities snatched victors from the striker's hands. He also claim that the rioting and bloodshed were in clited by hired thugs and not by union men, and denies that he was personally responsible for the strike. Debs believe in Government ownership of railroad and expects the A. R. U. to effect bloodless revolution in that direction. In speaking of politics Debs said thought a reform wave had struck that town. He expects that the Populis party will become the workingment party in good time.
